To Keep Your Skin
Free From Hairs

(Beauty Topics)

If you are willing to spend a few minutes time in your room using a delatone paste, you can easily banish any ugly, hairy growth without discomfort or injury. The paste is made by mixing some water with a little powdered delatone. This is then spread over the hairy surface and after about 2 minutes rubbed off and the skin washed. You will not be disappointed with this treatment, providing you get real delatone.—Adv.

WATERBURY

Death of Mrs. Dean Nichols at Age of 78 Years.

The funeral of Mrs. Dean Nichols was held in the Congregational chapel on Wednesday afternoon, Rev. A. D. Page officiating. In poor health for some time, she had made her home with her sister, Mrs. M. O. Evans, but had been ill only about one and one-half weeks, passing away with static pneumonia. Sarah Jane Knapp was born in Moretown 78 years ago the 18th of last November, the daughter of Rolland and Lotisa (Hills) Knapp. About 45 years ago she married Dean Nichols, 30 years of this time having been spent here in town. Mr. Nichols died three or four years ago. She is survived by the one sister with whom she made her home and two granddaughters, Mrs. Lieut. Goodrich of Buffalo, N. Y., and Mrs. Robert Perry of this town. The bearers were B. E. Wallace, E. E. Joslyn, Ralph Parsons and William Parks. Burial was in the village cemetery.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Babcock of this town, Merton Johnson, John Dillon, L. S. Hills and Orrin Hills of Duxbury attended the funeral in Moretown yesterday of Stephen Johnson, at which Rev. William Remede of Waitsfield officiated. The bearers were Walter Johnson, Herbert Johnson, Merton Johnson and Frank Johnson. Burial was in North Fayston. Six veterans of the Civil war, members of the G. A. R., attended.

Patrons of the telephone exchange are glad to welcome "over the wire" Mrs. Harry Bingham, who was for a time before her marriage one of the most efficient of telephone girls. Mrs. Bingham comes only as a supply. Miss Gertrude Smith of Montpelier is also here helping in the office. Miss Dorothy Griffith is away for a two weeks' vacation, during which time she will visit Lieutenant and Mrs. S. L. Goodrich at Buffalo, N. Y., and Miss Pauline Trowbridge at Springfield, Mass. The other help in the telephone office at present are Misses Louise Town and Dorrie Robinson, and the night operator is Trevor Ayers.

Two stars on a service flag at the home of Joseph Jay on Elm street tell the story of two sons in the service, Joseph, Jr., and John Jay, one enlisting from Northfield and one from Montpelier, both for the time in the 101st ammunition train. Both young men were in good health when last heard from. John Jay, who has been in Co. F for a number of years, went to the border before sailing for France. He was chief mechanic, but asked to be reduced that he might go into the trenches. He was afterward raised back to sergeant and at the last heard was being instructed in gas warfare.

Two messages received by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Perry since the telegram telling of their son's illness with pneumonia at Camp Wadsworth are more favorable, his condition improving, and hopes are now entertained of his recovery.

Miss Blanche Cady of St. Albans was a week-end visitor of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Robinson.

Mrs. Bert Goodell and son, Dan Goodell, of Windsor, who have been visiting relatives here, have returned to their home.

Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Demeritt left yesterday noon for Boston, Mr. Demeritt going on business for the Demeritt company. They will probably spend Sunday

A service flag flies from the home of W. S. Carpenter in honor of his son-in-law, Private Fred L. Bunker, who is now at Springfield, Mass. Private Bunker recently spent Sunday here.

W. J. LeBaron, who returned to Boston with his daughter, Miss Kathleen LeBaron, expects to return home this week. Mr. LeBaron is feeling much better, but not yet up to his usual self.

Mrs. L. J. Garvey remains in Burlington with her daughter, Geraldine, who seems to be doing well at the hospital.

Misses Louise and Vivian Davis of Northfield were over-Sunday guests at the Guptil farm. Miss Vivian Davis has passed the examinations as stenographer and leaves soon for the quartermaster department, Washington, D. C.

Rev. and Mrs. Verne L. Smith left Tuesday noon for the Vermont Methodist conference, which is being held this week at St. Johnsbury. Tuesday evening Mr. Smith was to give at conference an illustrated lecture on the Vermont state Epworth league institute, which is to be held at Montpelier seminary June 17-23, of which Mr. Smith is the dean. These slides of the campus, speakers and faculty he has prepared and Sunday evening, following the lecture on "The Story of Abraham," he gave part of these slides, which were much enjoyed by those who were privileged to be present. Mr. Smith has been pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church for three years and was given a unanimous call by that church to return. Sunday morning at the church service in the Congregational church, following B. R. Demeritt, who was the four-minute man, C. D. Swasey asked for the privilege of saying a word, and stating the fact of Mr. Smith's serving as the pastor of the two churches since Rev. W. J. Boicourt went to France, felt that a nepotism that it was also the wish of the Congregational church that Mr. Smith be returned should be given. The members rising gave this as unanimous also. Next Sunday the pulpit will be supplied probably by someone from Congregational headquarters, Boston. In the evening the Sunday school pupils will deliver some Bible readings, a preliminary meeting to a state contest.

The box social at the red schoolhouse, Duxbury, Monday evening, where Miss Marie Tomasi teaches, netted quite a sum, which finished paying for the photograph and started each scholar with a thrift stamp.

People here were much pained Tuesday evening to hear of the very serious operation which Mrs. C. M. Bugbee of Springfield had at the Mary Hitchcock hospital, Hanover, N. H., that day. She was recovering from the effects of the operation as well as possible.

Mrs. Mae Woodward (Russell) Chapin of Stowe and Edward Richard McMahon of this town were married at St. Andrews' rectory Monday afternoon by Rev. Robert Devoy. The bride wore a taupe colored traveling suit and the couple were attended by the groom's sister, Mrs. Charles Hayes, and brother, Henry McMahon of this town. After a short trip they will live at the McMahon farm on Gregg hill.

The outline for the Vermont state league institute, to be held at Montpelier seminary June 17-23 is to be a week of inspiration and jubilation for Vermont's young people. The officers of the institute are: Dean, Rev. V. L. Smith, Waterbury; registrar, Rev. C. W. Kelley, Irasburg; bursar, Rev. S. G. Sutor, Randolph. The faculty is Dr. C. E. Spaulding, the efficient president of the Epworth leagues of the New England states, superintendent of the Worcester district of the New England conference, dean of the New England Epworth league institute; Dr. Frederick Palladino, able first vice-president of the Epworth league of the New England states and superintendent of the Bucksport district of the East Maine conference; Dr. William Shaw, superintendent of the St. Johnsbury district of the Vermont conference, president of the state Sunday school association; Rev. W. M. Gilbert, pastor of the First M. E. church, Boston; Rev. E. R. Leach, pastor of M. E. church, Arlington Heights; Rev. C. W. Kelley, superintendent of the junior league of the New England states; Miss Alice M. Robertson, principal of the New England training school for Christian service, Boston, a leader of rare charm and great ability; Prof. C. A. Davis of Montpelier seminary, who will lead in the afternoon recreational and athletic activities; Senator W. P. Dillingham, Gov. Horace F. Graham and Bishop E. H. Hughes, bishop of the New England area.

Jason W. Abbey, who worked in Rochester all winter, was here yesterday with relatives on his way to Randolph for a visit.

Mrs. W. H. Arnold had begun to re-shingle her house at the foot of Church street, when she was reminded of a fire district ordinance forbidding the use of wooden roofing within the fire district. Mrs. C. L. Sanders was given a post-

GOOD-BYE BACKACHE, KIDNEY AND BLADDER TROUBLES

For centuries all over the world GOLD MEDAL Haerlem Oil has afforded relief in thousands upon thousands of cases of lame back, lumbago, sciatica, rheumatism, gall stones, gravel and all other affections of the kidneys, liver, stomach, bladder and allied organs. It acts quickly. It does the work. It cleanses your kidneys and purifies the blood. It makes a new man, a new woman, of you. It frequently wards off the onset of the fatal diseases of the kidneys. It often completely cures the distressing diseases of the organs of the body, allied with the bladder and kidneys. Bloody or cloudy urine, sediment, or "brick-dust" indicate an unhealthy condition.

Do not delay a minute if your back aches or you are sore across the loins or have difficulty when urinating. Go to your druggist at once and get a box of imported GOLD MEDAL Haerlem Oil Capsules. They are pleasant and easy to take. They dissolve in the stomach, and the kidneys soak up the oil like a sponge does water. They thoroughly cleanse and wash out the bladder and kidneys and throw off the inflammation which is the cause of the trouble. Your druggist will cheerfully refund your money if you are not satisfied after a few days' use. Accept only the pure, original GOLD MEDAL Haerlem Oil Capsules. None other genuine.—Adv.
